Jim Cogan Storyteller

SUPERHEROES IN ACTION

For 25 years Jim Cogan Storyteller has been inspiring and motivating children, teens and adults to jump into the joy of reading. Superhero and other library themes lend themselves to a wealth of oral tales told in language rhythms that tout positive values like character and caring, courage and creativity and highlight heroic actions in an endless stream of exciting adventures.

Jim's storytelling is acclaimed across the West.

You gave us all a real treat with your wonderful tales. We loved the way you use your voice and your whole body to engage the audience. Your enthusiastic telling had everyone participating. We highly recommend you to everyone - you represent the very best in storytelling.

Laurie Peck, Youth Librarian, Mountain View Library, CA
